Back in my day, we all had to take notes, do the work, and race to the next class. The school kept us happy and engaged to the max! But these days? Nowadays? Well, we've got some stress headaches (or something like that) and 10 different things to do between now and the end of the school year! So, let's see if you can meet some new challenges this year.

Here's what I'm looking for: Things I'd like to see you do this year: Spend at least five minutes listening to other people's opinions about all the changes. Then realize you don't need to have your own. Make more time to consider and use outside help as needed. Do more activities that don't include being right or wrong. Connect with more people outside of school. Figure out how to make the most of this short summer. Keep saving money. Get more involved in your community. Don't let perfection get in the way of progress. Make time for yourself. Put on a little personality. Read more. Do more fun things. Do some crazy stuff. Figure out what to do with your time that doesn't involve school. How to do these things: Don't be a perfectionist (even if other people expect it from you!). Make a to-do list, don't keep adding to it! Make sure you read up on new ideas and tips. Make
